‘Come here,’ he said,
‘and I’ll give your flesh to the birds and the wild animals!’

1 Samuel 17.44

The man who saw it has given testimony, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, and he testifies so that you also may believe.

John 19 v 35

*'He committed no sin, and no
deceit was found in his mouth.'*

1 Peter 2 v 22

'He himself bore our sins' in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; 'by his wounds you have been healed.'

1 Peter 2 v 24

Q. Are you thirsty?

*The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!'
And let the one who hears say,
'Come!' Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the free gift of the water of life.*

Revelation 22 v 17
