Slaves in Egypt

The LORD said, “I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt.

I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering.

Exodus 3:7

“Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” and he was called God's friend.

James 2:23

A painting depicting the biblical story of Moses parting the Red Sea. Moses, seen from behind, stands on a narrow path of dry earth that has formed through the parted waters. He is wearing a blue robe and a white turban, and he holds a wooden staff in his right hand, raised towards the sky. The sea is turbulent, with large, white-capped waves crashing on either side of the path. The sky is dark and stormy, with a hint of light on the horizon. The overall style is dramatic and expressive, with visible brushstrokes and a rich color palette.
