

When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. 'He himself bore our sins' in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; 'by his wounds you have been healed.' For 'you were like sheep going astray,' but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

1 Peter 2 vs 23-25

*Have mercy on me, O God,
according to your unfailing love;
according to your great compassion
blot out my transgressions.*

*Wash away all my iniquity
and cleanse me from my sin.*

*For I know my transgressions,
and my sin is always before me.*

Psalm 51 vs 1-3
