- “In God’s book, knowing his Son and believing true things about him is liberty. “You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free” Paul calls [God’s self-revelation in the Bible] “the standard of teaching to which you were committed”. It’s a standard, a yardstick, a pattern. You measure truth by it. Elsewhere he calls it “the whole counsel of God”, and the “pattern of the sound words” and “the good deposit entrusted to you”. It does not change. Our everlasting salvation is determined by whether we believe it: “Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son”. Depart from the doctrine, and you depart from Christ. Or, better, keep watch over your doctrine and “you will save . . . yourself”.

- John Piper

(John 8:32) (Romans 6:17) (Acts 20:27) (2 Timothy 1:13-14) (2 John 1:9) (1 Timothy 4:16)

- “At one time we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by all kinds of passions and pleasures. We lived in malice and envy, being hated and hating one another. But when the kindness and love of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life. This is a trustworthy saying.”
